

FROM OLD BOUNTY LAND.

Local Correspondent in The Piedmont Contest—News Items.

Bounty Land, Nov. 17.—Special: Mesdames J. L. Smith, W. T. Hubbard and L. M. Berry attended the reunion of the George's Creek school girls last Wednesday at the old McMan place near Easley. The occasion was marked with that enjoyment which generally characterizes such events. Mesdames Smith and Hubbard have returned, but Mrs. Berry will visit among relatives and friends before her return.

Misses Sallie and Julia Davis spent Wednesday night at the home of R. H. Smithson, Westminster.

Mrs. A. H. Ellison returned from a two weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. C. A. Webb, of Pelzer, a few days ago.

S. A. Davis, of Greenville, spent the week-end with his homepeople here.

A. G. Shanklin, of Clemson, was in the community Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Guntharp will be welcome residents of the community in the near future. They will occupy the old Gillison residence, owned by W. O. Hamilton.

We regret to learn that L. O. Davis, who for several months has been suffering from cancer on the back, is rapidly growing worse. His many friends deeply sympathize with him in this affliction.

J. R. Holland sold his place last week to a Mr. Burris, of Anderson. We regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Holland from the community.

Some kind friend has nominated your humble correspondent, Mrs. Jasper Doyle, as a candidate in the big Greenville Daily Piedmont prize campaign and some other unknown friends have contributed to our aid in the contest. We greatly appreciate this effort in our behalf on the part of our friends. Now what if all who are interested in old Bounty Land should give us the benefit of a year's subscription to the Daily Piedmont? My! We can almost feel our nose refreshing in the exhilarating breeze of a December automobile ride in our own prize car. Friends, do your best for us in this race, and if we do not win first prize, may be some of the valuable prizes will fall to our lot, but if not, why—'twill be only one of the many disappointments that go to make up life, and any way the race is one of increasing interest to us.

Mrs. A. C. Ballenger, of Seneca, is with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Pickett.

Jasper Doyle had two misfortune last week to lose his purse containing $8.

Local News from Tokeena.

Tokeena, Nov. 17.—Special: School has opened here with Mr. and Miss Harrison, of Walhalla, as teachers. The parents have great hopes that the school will be a success, and a hearty welcome is extended to the teachers.

Plans are being made for a Christmas tree for the Sunday school. We hope every one in the community, especially the children, will attend Sunday school and have their names placed on the Christmas roll.

The box party given by C. E. Callahan some time since was quite a success. A neat little sum having been collected, the society will forward the amount of Rev. L. D. Mitchell, who is now at Fort Worth, Texas, attending the seminary. This gift goes to him as a token of love and gratitude, and as a remembrance of his faithful work among the young people here.

Mrs. W. H. Simmons, who has been sick for some time, is slowly improving.

Hoyt Whitfield and sister, Miss Roxie, visited relatives in Townville recently.

Miss Pearl Owens, of Seneca, visited here last week.

C. L. Callahan and sister, Miss Ruby, visited their sister, Mrs. Wade Boggs, of Pickens, last week.

Ryan King, of Parrott, Ga., has been a visitor in this community and Oakway recently.

A Thanksgiving service will be held here Thanksgiving Day at 11 o'clock. Each and every one is invited to attend.

Clarence Brock is at home after a short stay in Toccoa, Ga.

Prayer meeting will be conducted by J. P. Carter next Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor will meet next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. All the young people are especially invited.

Up On Little River.

Little River, Nov. 17.—Special: Miss Alma Dunlap, of Oak Grove, opened school at Snelitzer on November 10th. The school will likely continue through the winter.

A. W. Galloway, and Alf Barton and Winnie Corbin are on an extended trip to North Carolina.

Surveyor J. H. Wigington has been in Greenville on business for some time. He is expected home soon.

Miss Ida Holden, after spending some time with her brother in Chee-hee, has returned home.

Miss Bessie Burgess, of North Carolina, has been spending some time with homefolks, to the delight of her many friends.

Mrs. Mary E. Holden is spending some time in Jocassee with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Sarah Mauldin is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Perry.

E. P. Martin and family are preparing to move to Georgia. This is a good family and we are loath to give them up, but wish them success in their new home.

Mrs. James Madden, who has been sick for some time, is some better at this writing, to the delight of her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin gave a candy drawing last Saturday night, which was highly enjoyed by a goodly number of young people.

Walter White and family, of Old Pickens, were guests of J. L. Talley and family Saturday and Sunday.

William Littleton and sister Myrtle, in company with Miss Ola Talley, of Salem, were guests of Charlie and Myrtle Perry Saturday and Sunday.

THE QUARANTINE IS LIFTED.

Seneca Again "Open" After Diphtheria Scare—O. F. Bacon Injured.

Seneca, Nov. 17.—Special: Seneca is enjoying the "storm after the calm," school and other public gatherings having opened up this week with the lifting of the diphtheria quarantine. Promptly with the change came Bruce & Rogers' United Shows (carnival), and this, with the "movies," which is "always with us," brings a decided change from the quiet of the past weeks.

The teachers are again at their posts. Misses Miriam and Dorothy Jennings spent the vacation period with Miss Florence Reid in Rock Hill, and Miss Margaret Morrison and Miss Kittie Sligh spent the time with their homefolks. Their friends are extending them the glad hand upon their return.

Dr. D. P. Thomson has begun the erection of a handsome new home on Fair Play street. The structure will be of brick and the interior will be in keeping with the handsome exterior. Contractors from Greenville have the work in charge.

Mrs. J. W. Todd spent a day in Anderson shopping the past week.

W. A. and R. K. Nimmons spent Sunday on Keowee.

Mrs. I. E. Wallace leaves this week for Baltimore, where she goes for treatment in a hospital. We wish for her a profitable stay and a speedy return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Earle, of Anderson, were in Seneca Monday.

The Clemson foot ball team passed through Seneca last Saturday going to Atlanta, where they witnessed the Tech-Georgia foot ball game. They went from Atlanta to Macon, where they played Mercer on Monday.

Rev. J. E. Wallace, of Westminster, was visiting in Seneca last Saturday.

Mrs. C. W. Bauknight, of Walhalla, visited Mrs. W. J. Holloway the past week.

T. E. Strubling, Jr., Charles Lawrence and Frank Harper will go to Greenville Wednesday to stand the civil service examination for railway mail service.

The friends of O. F. Bacon regretted an accident which befell him one day last week when he slipped on the street and was confined to his room several days on account of lameness. He is now at his post of business again, and while he has the aid of a crutch at present it is hoped that he will soon be restored to his usual activity.

Rev. C. S. Blackburn has accepted a call from the Baptist church at Greer and will make the change at an early date. Mr. Blackburn has many friends in Seneca, who regret to lose him, but who will wish for him unmeasured success in his new field of labor. Mrs. Blackburn and children are in Columbia, where they were called by the death of her father, Mr. Waring. They will go from Columbia direct to Greer.

The sale of the household effects of B. L. Lowery last Friday was well attended, and it is said that the articles offered brought good prices.

News has been received here of the critical illness of H. R. Ford in Columbia. He was carried there for treatment about a week ago.

A number of Seneca people are planning to go to Atlanta next week (Thanksgiving) to the Tech-Clemson foot ball game. It is thought that a special car will be run from Seneca.

The up-country is to be congratulated upon the selection of an up-country woman as regent of the state D. A. R. There were only two nominees—Mrs. Howard Carlisle, of par-tanburg, and Mrs. F. H. Hall, of Clemson College. Mrs. Carlisle was elected with a majority of our votes. The retiring regent, Mrs. Louise Mayes, of Greenville, is also an upper Carolinian.

Already the gobble of the turkey is heard, betokening the approach of America's great feast day, Thanksgiving. It is also home-coming day, or the occasion for family reunions, and it will indeed be awaited with unusual interest in the little family here, when it is hoped the loved ones at a distance will gather again around the family board. Nothing else could make us more truly thankful.

Upper Division Union Meeting.

Following is the program of union meeting of the upper division of Beavertown Baptist Association, to be held with Pleasant Hill Baptist church on the fifth Sunday in November, 1913, and Saturday before, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m.:

MURDERED WIFE, TOOK POISON.

Wilmington Man Falls in Effort at Suicide After Killing.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 16.—Geo. W. Beaman, 40 years old, a carpenter, shot and killed his wife in a field near their home three miles from this city this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and took an ounce of strychnine with suicidal intent. At the hospital to-night it was stated he would recover, having taken an overdose, which acted as an antidote.

He used a .32-calibre rifle on the woman and fired twice, both bullets taking effect, the last entering the back at the waist line and the other penetrating the left temple. His victim died instantly.

Beaman left a note stating that he had killed the woman because she had left him three times. He made a voluntary statement to a notary public that he alone was responsible for the death of the woman.

DON'T FORGET!

Aside from the big sales we are having on Ladies' Suits and Coats, we are breaking the record on

DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.

Our assortment is so complete, and the prices so attractive, that any lady can get just what she wants and can find the Trimmings and Buttons to match. 'Tis worth something to have all the little accessories and linings that go with a nice piece of goods, and then ask to see the "True Shape," and "Y. S. F." Hosiery, both in Lisle Thread and Silk—all colors. We have scoured the markets to get the best to be had for Durability and Beauty combined.

Ask to see our line of Kid Gloves, in two of the best grades, at $1.00 and $1.25.

We strive to give our customers the best to be had in all lines we carry, and if we do not we are deceived ourselves, and we do figure the lowest possible margin of profit when the value is considered. Nothing "Shoddy" ever comes into our store if we know it.

Give us your business in confidence. We will treat you right.
